CHAUFFEUR'S "JOY RIDE"

ENDS IN HIS ARREST An effort by Frederick Thomas, colored, twenty-two years old, a chauffeur in the employ of David S. Hendricks, of 1317 H Street Northwest, to emulate Bot Burman, the auto speed king, led to his arrest by Detective Warren last night. Thomas is charged with "joy riding." and was apprehended on complaint of his employer, who declared that the chauffeur had taken the machine from ts garage without his consent.

Thomas' ride, or flight, was an eventful one. His start was made from an imaginary line ten miles distant from the District Line, and he covered the dis-tance to Chevy Chase Circle at a speed of approximately sixty miles an hour, witnesses declare. He came to grief at the circle, however, bringing up against a tree with a dull thud.

The chauffer escaped unhurt, but the achine was almost demolished.
